

October 17, 2019 Special Council Meeting @ Town Hall (104 E. 6th Ave) – Appointment of Mayor

Council members in attendance were Scott Holbrook, Matt Greemore, Jim “JB” Klyap (via conference call) and Nolan Frandsen (via conference call). Also in attendance was Clerk/Treasurer Kristi Millhouse.

Guests: Robert Lancaster, Brenda Pollorena, and John Pollorena

Matt Greemore (council president) called the meeting to order at 3:48 pm.

Matt gave a summary that the interview committee which consisted of him, Scott Holbrook, and former Mayor Tom Hyndman met with both candidates Patricia Hayes and Joe Willauer on October 11, 2019. Kristi Millhouse (Clerk/Treasurer) was also present and took notes during the interviews. Both candidates were asked 10 questions and were then scored by each individual of the committee. The notes for each interview and scores were reviewed on Monday, October 14, 2019 with Scott and Matt meeting to go over the interviews.

Scott commented that based on the scoring of each interview Joe Willauer came out ahead. The committees’ recommendation is appoint Joe Willauer as the Mayor to finish out Mayor Tom Hyndman’s term which ends December 31, 2021. The next election for the Mayor will be November 2021 for the four year term starting January 1, 2022 and ending December 31, 2025.

Scott made a motion to appoint Joe Willauer as Mayor for the remainder of the current term. JB Klyap seconded the motion. Matt asked for any comments from the public. Bob Lancaster asked if Joe is appointed will the council need to fill a council position. Matt explained that there are three individuals running on the ballet that comes out on October 18th, and depending on how that election turns out will determine if we need to appoint a council member or not. There were no further questions.

Matt took a roll call vote. Scott (yes), Nolan (yes), JB (yes), and Matt (yes). Motion passed with a unanimous vote.

Meeting adjourned at 3:57 pm.
